- 14.3 Nothing in paragraph 14.2 limits or excludes any liability for fraud.

16. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 16.1 We will notify you of any amendment to these Terms of Business. We may do so in writing or by posting the relevant amendment to the Website. Any amendment to the Terms of Business will take effect 14 days after the date on which we notify you of the change unless you notify us within that period that you do not agree to it.
- 16.2 The renewal of this agreement in respect of each Subsequent Period will be on the basis of the version of these Terms of Business appearing on the Website on the first day of that Subsequent Period.
- 16.3 Our rights under this agreement:
- (a) may be exercised as often as necessary;
 - (b) are cumulative and not exclusive of rights or remedies provided by law; and
 - (c) may be waived only in writing and specifically.
- Delay in the exercise or non-exercise of any such right is not a waiver of that right.
- 16.4 If a provision of this agreement is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, that will not affect:
- (a) the legality, validity or enforceability in that jurisdiction of any other provision of this agreement; or
 - (b) the legality, validity or enforceability in other jurisdictions of that or any other provision of this agreement.

- 16.5 Nothing in this agreement shall be deemed to constitute a partnership between us, nor constitute either of us the agent of the other for any purpose.
- 16.6 A person who is not a party to this agreement may not enforce any of its terms under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.
- 16.7 A waiver (whether express or implied) by one of us of any of the provisions of this agreement or of any breach of or default by the other of us in performing any of those provisions will not constitute a continuing waiver and that waiver will not prevent the waiving party from subsequently enforcing any of the provisions of this agreement not waived or from acting on any subsequent breach of or default by the other party under any of the provisions of this agreement.
- 16.8 Any notice or other communication given under or in connection with this agreement will be in English. All other documents provided under or in connection with this agreement will be in English or, if not in English, accompanied by a certified English translation and, in this case, the English translation will prevail unless the document is a statutory or other official document.

17. PROFESSIONAL REGULATION AND COMPLAINTS

- 17.1 The Rulefinder Marketing Restrictions Product is a product of aosphere. aosphere does not provide legal advice and is not regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority of England & Wales (the "SRA"), although some aosphere Content and activities may be provided by individuals who are individually regulated by the SRA (Regulated Individuals), although Content and activities will not be provided by any named or specific Regulated Individual. Neither aosphere nor the Regulated Individuals are providing any legal advice to you. The Regulated Individuals, but not aosphere or its affiliates are subject to the relevant parts of the SRA Standards and Regulations. This means that you have no access to protections associated with working with a regulated business, including minimum terms and conditions for professional indemnity insurance and access to the SRA Compensation Fund (which provides support to people who have suffered loss covered by a regulated person who should have been insured). aosphere has insurance to cover the Content and activities, subject to the limited liability owed to you under clause 9.4. You should also be aware that legal privilege is unlikely to apply.
- 17.2 aosphere has a complaints handling process and this covers complaints about Regulated Individuals. We have a written complaints procedure and complaints are handled promptly, fairly, openly and effectively in accordance with it. In the event of a problem, you are entitled to complain and you will be advised to whom to complain.
- 17.3 The complaints policy can be accessed at aosphere.com.
- 17.4 If you have a complaint about a Regulated Individual, you may be entitled to ask the SRA or the Legal Ombudsman of England and Wales to consider your complaint. A complaint to the Legal Ombudsman must normally be made within six months of the date of the conclusion of the firm's complaints process. Details of how to contact the Legal Ombudsman and further information, including the eligibility criteria for invoking the Legal Ombudsman's services, can be found at www.legalombudsman.org.uk and in our complaints policy.
- 17.5 As a consumer of legal services, you may have a right to challenge or complain about a bill. If all or part of a bill, or any sum properly due under this agreement remains unpaid, except to the extent that you have raised an unresolved bona fide query, we may charge you interest in accordance with paragraph 6.6 of this agreement.

18. DISPUTES

- 18.1 Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this agreement shall, at the request of either party, be referred to arbitration before one or more arbitrator(s) who shall be appointed by agreement in writing between us or, if we are unable to agree on the identity of the arbitrator(s) within 14 days of the date of the request that the dispute shall be referred to arbitration, or if the person appointed is unable or unwilling to act, shall be appointed by the London Court of International Arbitration (the "LCIA") on the application of either of us. The arbitration shall be conducted in London, England in the English language and in accordance with the rules of the LCIA in force at the date of this agreement.
- 18.2 This paragraph 18 is without prejudice to the right of either of us to seek interim relief against the other of us (such as an injunction) through the English courts to protect its rights and interests, or to enforce the obligations of the other.

19. GOVERNING LAW

- 19.1 This agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with English law.
- 19.2 Any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with this agreement shall be governed by English law.
- 19.3 Subject to paragraph 18, the English courts have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with this agreement (including a dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with this agreement) and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
